EDUCATION 2020 The Art Institute

It was here I began to cultivate my design skills. With classes focusing on the Adobe Suite I was thriving until the Pandemic began, forcing my schooling to an end.

2018-2019 Pellissippi State Community College

Transitioning to a smaller local college was a decision made to try and focus my learning path. With studies starting in Science, it was here I began to move towards the Arts.

2016-2017 University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Attending a big University taught me a lot about how I learn and study, my time here was spent getting an understanding of networking and figuring out how to organize myself moving forward with life.
